

Discrimination and Escapism

Jun Togo

This is a story on a faraway planet, where "Pagans are the devils" is taught. <sup>1</sup>

---

<sup>1</sup> This is a fiction on a remote planet, which is not related to this earth. Ref. "Space Pagans".

One day, the people below misunderstood different people as devils and killed them when they met each other for the first time. However, after the attackers came to themselves, they understood immediately that the people they killed were not devils. It was because the victims were too weak to be as demons.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>2</sup> Ref. "Nervous at First Meetings"

Now that's a trouble. You would be very happy if you destroyed the real devils. But you will surely feel nasty if you kill real people for no reason.

Besides, if they thought murder to be bad, what they did was also evil in due course. If they believe in Hell, they may think that they will fall into the place.<sup>3</sup>

<sup>3</sup> The writer has no intension to claim if the hell exists or not.

When the real world is too hard, one may escape from the reality. It is not necessarily limited to an individual case. There are cases where people cooperate to make up imagination and take it as a reality and deny the genuine reality, together.

Within OO, the imagination made by them enters.

As ○○ is just an imagination, it may vary, such as; <sup>4</sup>

<sup>4</sup> Some readers may associate this with the teaching of bible "Who is it that overcomes the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?" (1 John 5:5 ESV), but this is not a story on this earth.

Because
they are not humans,
but animals !

Because
they are inferior race !

Because

it is natural to sacrifice some lives
in order to civilize barbarians!

Because

we live the law of the jungle.
The weak is destined to be ruined!

As human beings have infinite imaginative power, you can make imaginations as many as you like. Using the imaginations created by oneself, #He/she justify what it has done and #He/she denies the genuine reality.

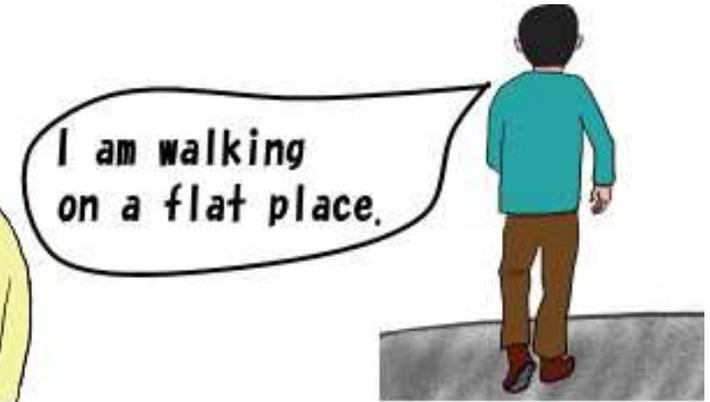

A man with a green hat featuring two antennae and a teal shirt is smoking a cigarette. He is standing behind a wooden fence in a large green field. In the background, there are several brown horses grazing, a white house with a purple roof, and some trees under a light blue sky.

Umm, I was so lucky to own my large property.

Ah, they were just monkeys.

One acts based on his/her perceptions.<sup>5</sup>

If one perceives an illusion as a reality, he/she will act based on the wrong recognition.

If one imagines / misperceives / believes people from a different race as mere animals, he/she will act based on the wrong recognition forever, until he/she changes the perception.

<sup>5</sup> Ref. "Water and Detergent".

This means that the discrimination is permanently established.

Afterword - picture book “Discrimination and Escapism”

This picture book is one of “Discrimination” series.

If you empathize with this picture book, we would appreciate it if you could show them to your family and friends.

You can freely make copies of (down load/print/distribute) this picture book, so long as you do not get any monetary gains. Obtaining profit/money from this book is strictly prohibited except under written agreement. You can also download other picture books and messages written by Jun Togo from the web below.

www.peace-picturebook.org

©Jun Togo 2015