

Pavlov's dog

The psychology of respondent conditioning

Jun Togo Edited by B.Blue

Dr. Pavlov

Hi everyone!

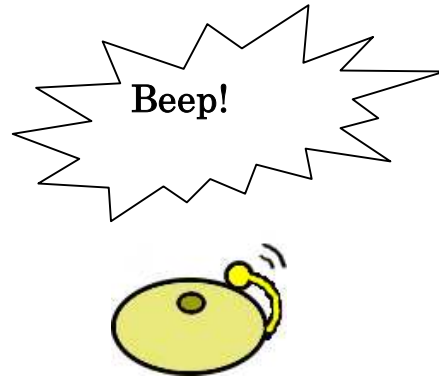

Today we will study the nature of respondent conditioning.

Hi everyone!

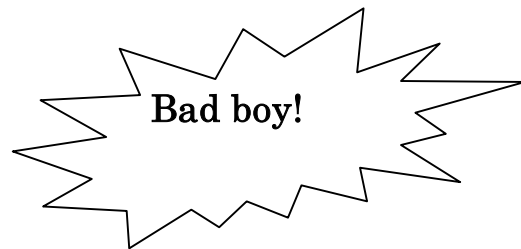

Today we will study the nature of respondent conditioning.

Let's ring the bell,

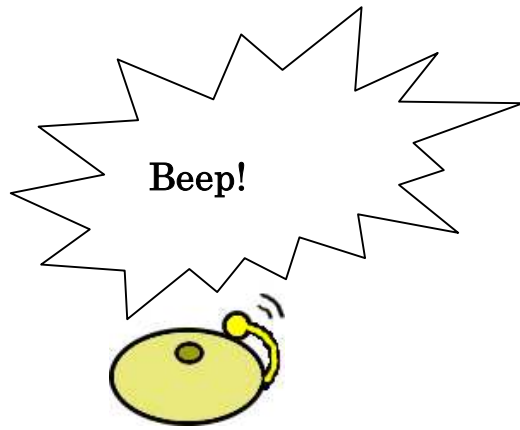

then feed the dog.

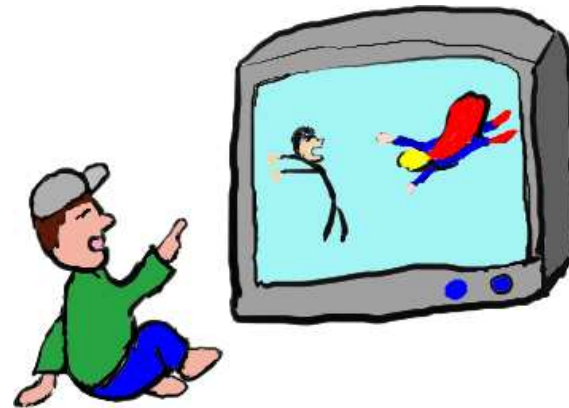

Let's assume someone's bad,

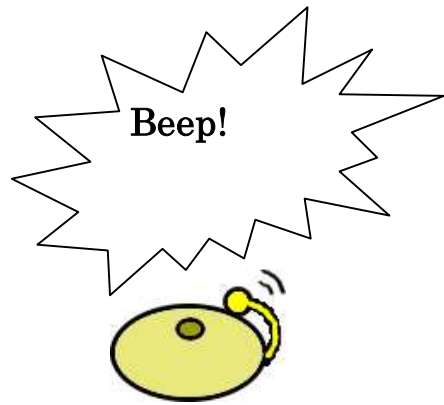

then punish them.

Dinner is served.

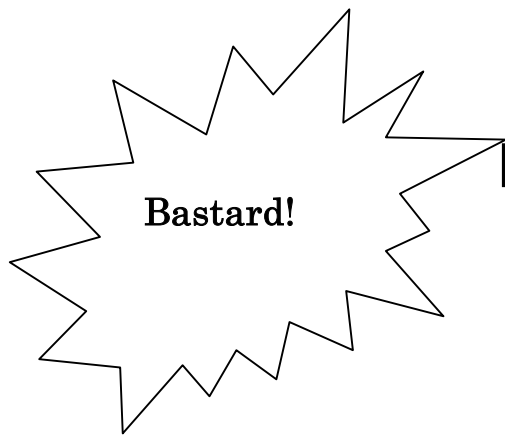

Justice is served.

Beep!

Dinner is served.

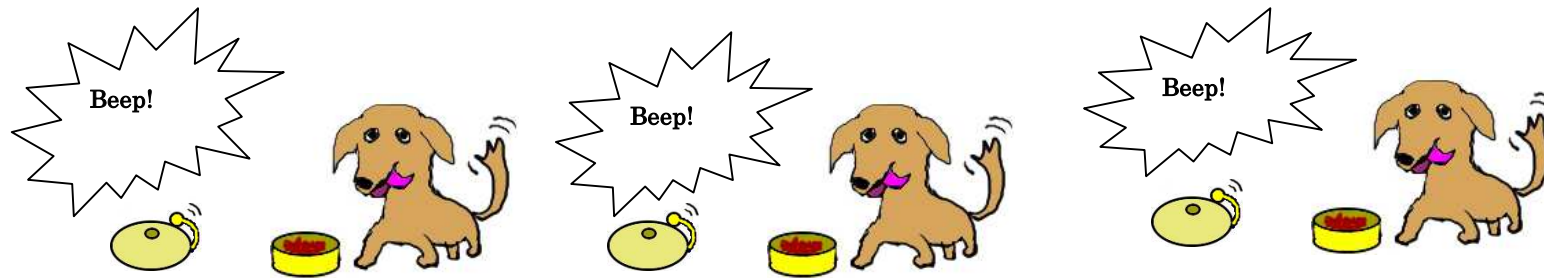

Bastard!

Justice is served.

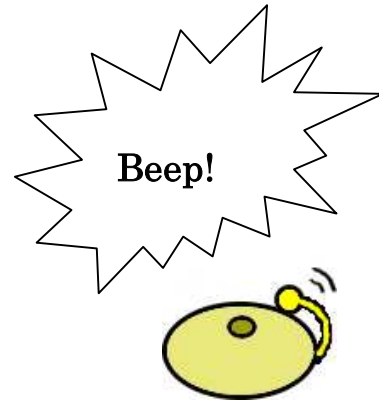

This process is repeated dozens of times ...

This process is repeated not dozens of times, but for decades from one's childhood ...

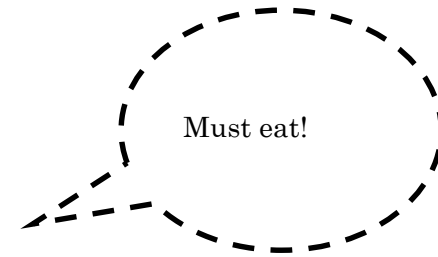

It only takes...

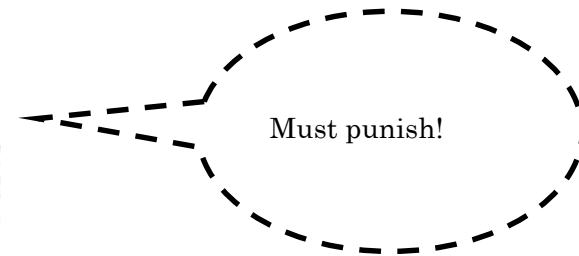

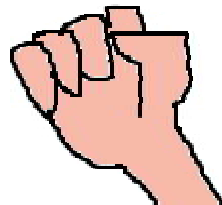

It only takes...

for the dog to salivate.

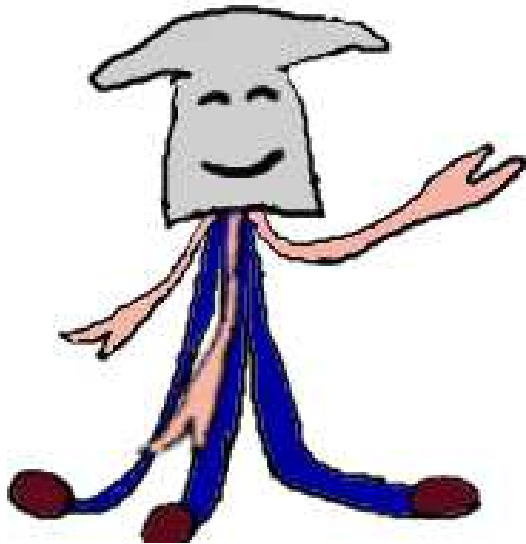

for the earthlings to raise their fists.

This is respondent conditioning. Use this technique and control a dog's behavior.

This is respondent conditioning. Use this technique and control an earthling' behavior.

Afterword - picture book “Pavlov’s dog”

The concept of good and evil seems to structure and control people’s minds through various methods. Let me point out the possibility that such methods of conditioning, combined with the illusion of good and evil, could have caused various tragedies and sacrificed billions of people. (For more details, please refer to my book, Good and Evil Addiction).

I have written this picture book with the aim of reducing these tragedies on earth through exploring the theme of dominating the human mind with good and evil.

If you empathize with this picture book, we would appreciate it if you could show them to your family and friends.

You can freely make copies of (down load/print/distribute) this picture book, so long as you do not get any monetary gains. Obtaining profit/money from this book is strictly prohibited except under written agreement. You can also download other picture books and messages written by Jun Togo from the web below.

www.peace-picturebook.org

©Jun Togo 2007