

Which?

Jun Togo      Edited by B.Blue

"You are a bad child!"

Have you ever been scolded like this?

It's very nasty to be scolded.

You feel almost crying, don't you?

Nobody likes bad people.
Evil men are always beaten,
fired by their company,
put in jail,
dropped bombs on and killed.

You surely don't want to be put in prison.
Even more, you surely don't want to be killed.

How about you?

Do you want to be classified as evil by your dad, mum, teacher and/or God?

Of course you don't!

Then how can you become definitely good?

Let's imagine what sorts of people are definitely good

- Those who never think dirty thoughts?
- Those who never tell lies?
- Those who give their goods to others?
- Those who are never violent?

Hmm, can you definitely be a good person with just these kinds of things?

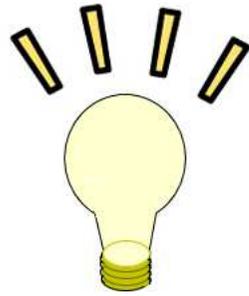

I never ever want to be evil!

It is because I don't want to be scolded, put in jail, killed or fall down into Hell at all!

Do you know how we can definitely be good people?

Oh, yes!

If you want to be definitely good, you should surely fight against evil because the enemy of evil is on the side of justice!

All the super heroes such as Batman, Super man and Spider man fight against evil!

Yes, I will fight against evil!

Why don't you become the allies of justice and fight against evil together!

Then we will definitely be good!

However..., how can we fight against evil?

What shall we do firstly to fight against bad people?

Eh? Finding bad people?

Oh, yes. Of course!

If you can't find evil ones, you can't fight against evil.

Now let's look for bad people. Let's look below.

Please assume these are all the human beings in the world, even though only a few have been drawn here.

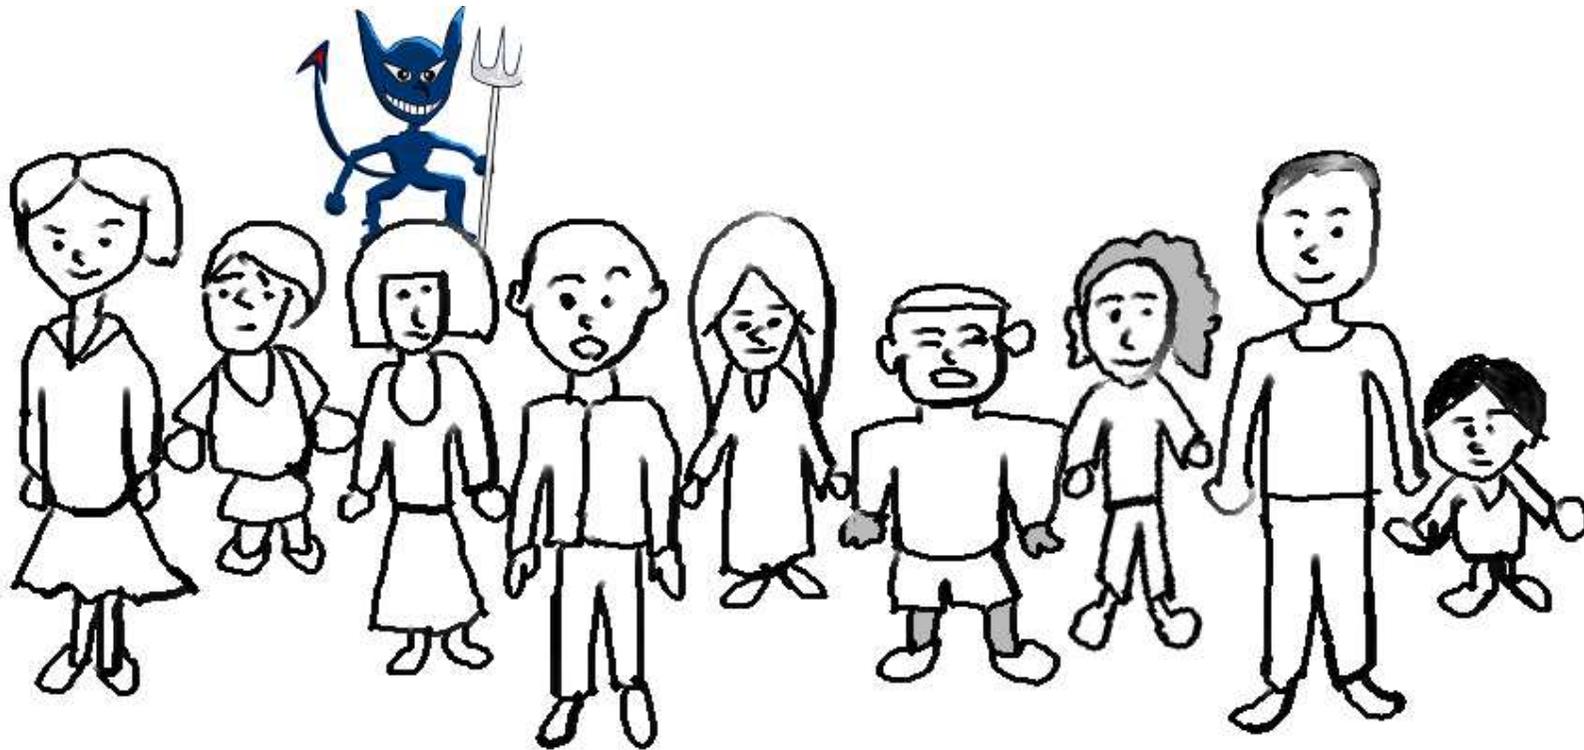

Now which ones are bad among all the human beings?

Eh? Those who litter the park?

Oh, yes! It is very bad to litter rubbish in a beautiful park, isn't it?

Now let's put an evil mark on those who have littered.<sup>1</sup>

---

<sup>1</sup> This is not related to the human races, nations and countries in the real world, and so forth on.

Also, those who hoard goodies to themselves, those who bully their friends and those who break their promises are bad. -Oh, yes. Of course!

We put the evil marks on those people as well.

Also, those who harass girls, those who steal, those who don't help the poor and those who oppose freedom or democracy are bad. -Oh, yes. Of course!

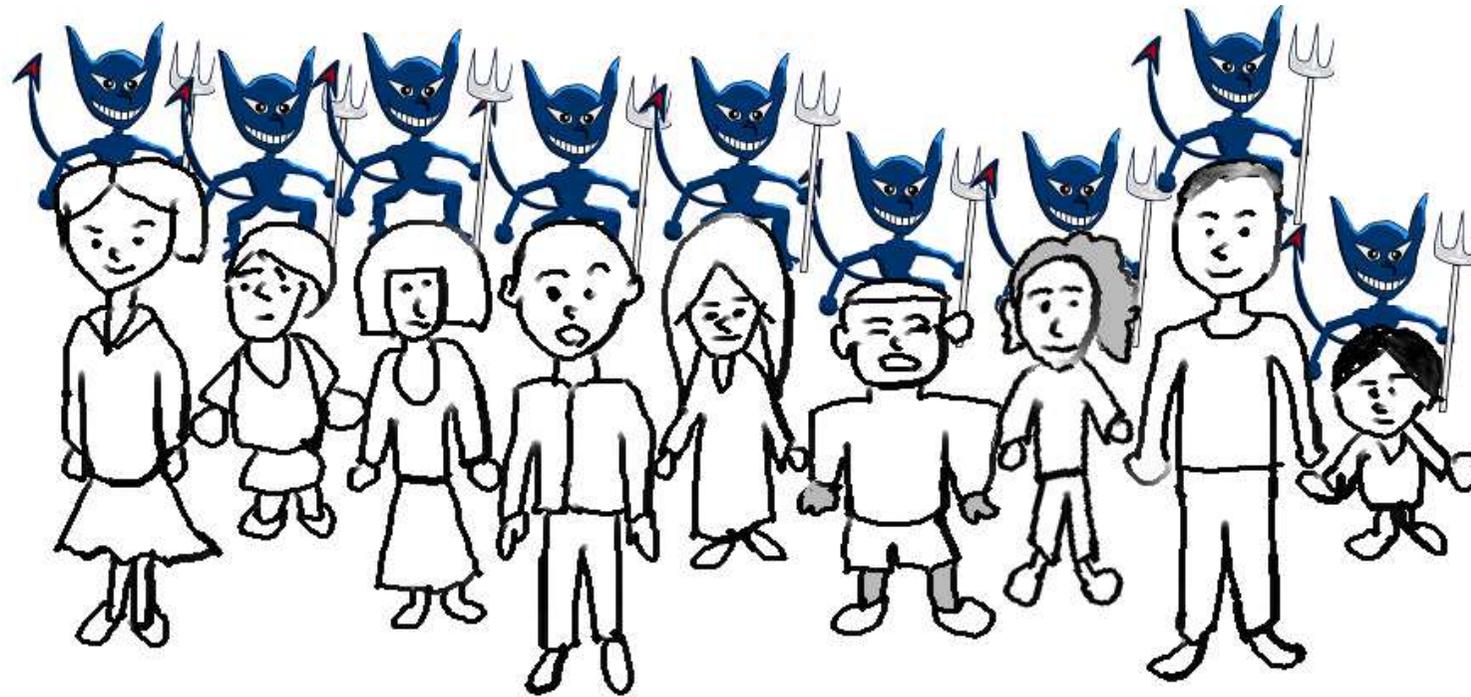

Let's put the evil marks on them, too.

Those who throw away butts on the street, those who ignore traffic regulations, those who discriminate on racial grounds, those who kill people, those who smoke in no smoking areas and those who believe in wrong gods. -Oh, yes. Of course!

Anyway we also put the evil marks on those people who committed evil.

Finally, those who use illegal drugs, those who tell lies, those who are cruel, those who are always angry, those who commit adultery, those who betray friends and those who don't fight against evil for the sake of justice. -OK. Let's put the evil marks on all the bad ones without failure.

Now we have found the bad people. Let's fight against evil for us to become good!

Ah!? ...What shall we do? All the people have the evil marks!

...Well it should be OK.

Let's fight against all the people for the sake of justice, as all the people are evil!!

Now kill them all!

Oh, my god...?
The earth has been destroyed!

...Hmm?

Have I really definitely become a good person? ...Or a bad one?

Which am I?

Afterword

There are many illusions related to 'good and evil' type of thoughts. These illusions tend to cause various tragedies and accordingly millions people become sacrificed (Please refer to my book, Good and Evil Addiction).

I have written this picture book with the theme of such an illusion, aiming to reduce these tragedies.
