

Can't be Honest

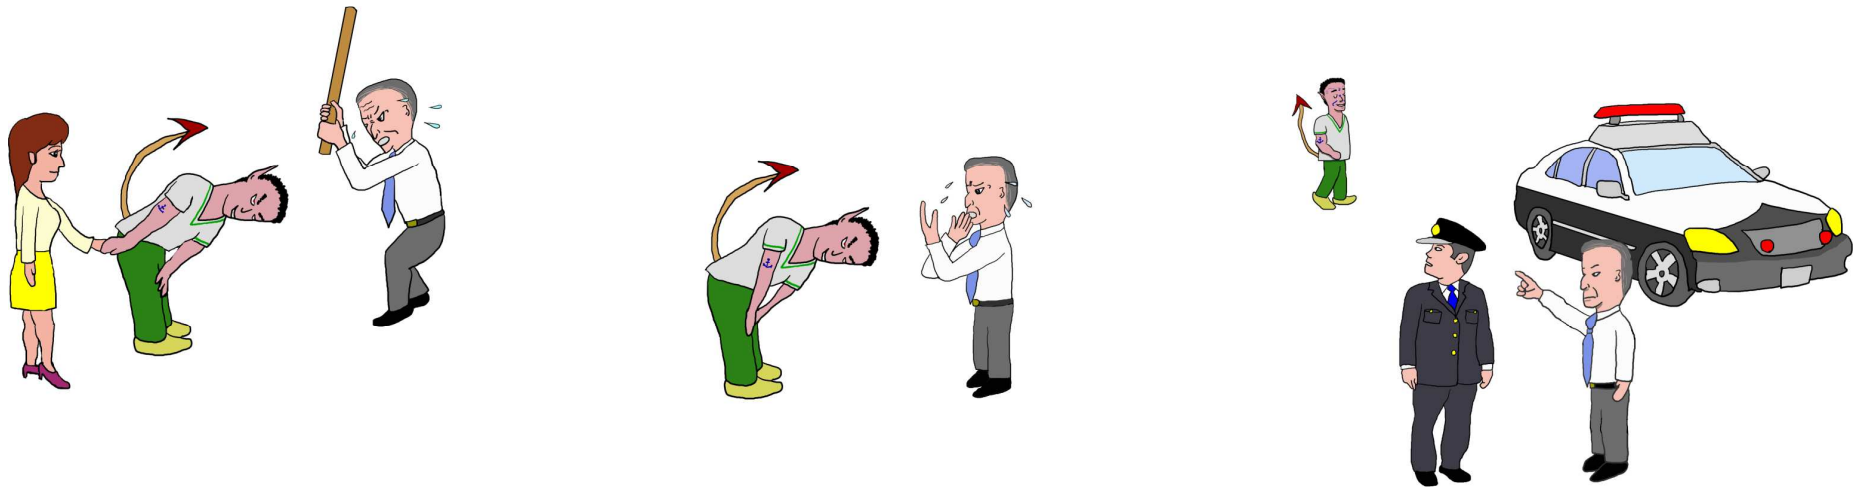

Jun Togo

Once upon a time, there were three men. The first one is called Mr. Tattoo, and the other two are called Mr. Lookbad and Mr. Seegood. Mr. Lookbad perceives Mr. Tattoo as a bad man. Mr. Seegood regards Mr. Tattoo as a good man. ¹

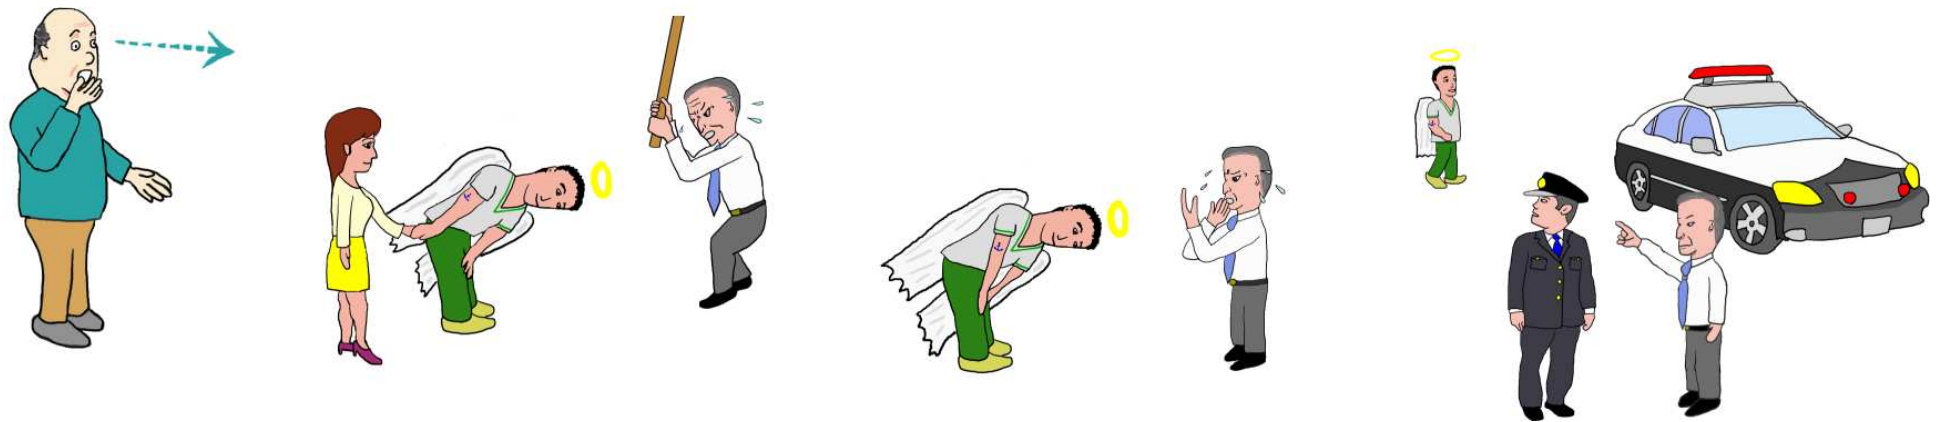

¹ N.B. The writer has no intention to claim whether a person with a tattoo is good or bad

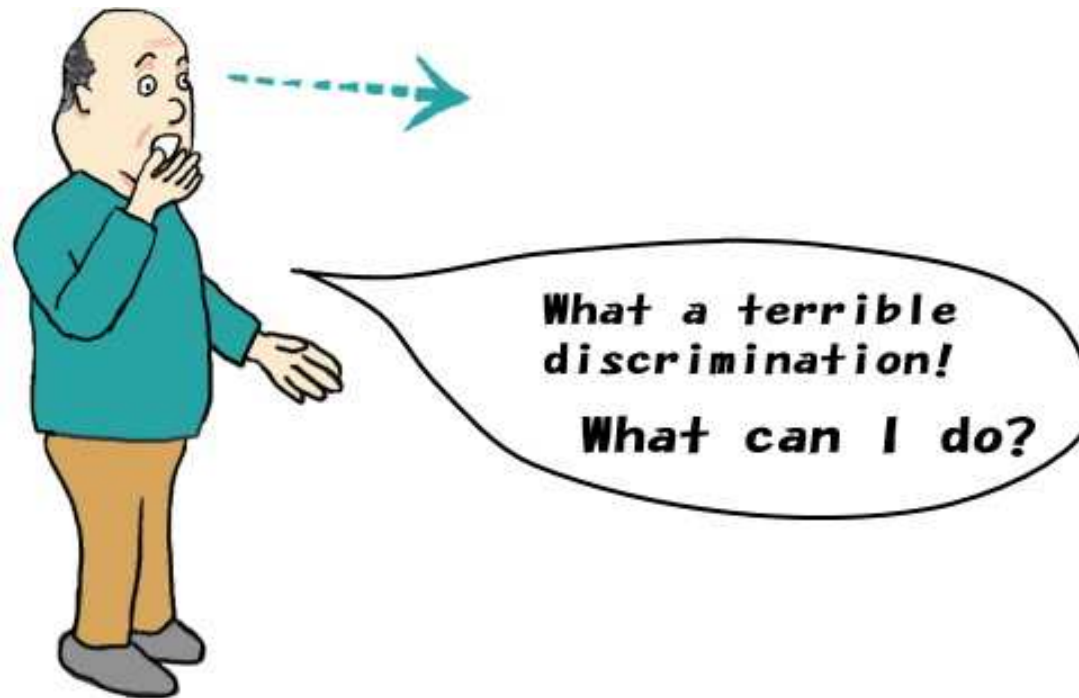

Mr.Lookbad believed that Mr.Tattoo was a bad person. Therefore, Mr.Lookbad treated Mr.Tattoo as an evil person.

On the other hand, Mr.Seegood regards Mr.Tattoo as a good person, so he recognised that Mr.Lookbad was unfairly discriminating Mr.Tattoo.

Needless to say, Mr.Seegood strongly wanted to stop Mr.Lookbad's act of discrimination.

Now, what will Mr.Seegood do? And what will Mr.Lookbad's reaction be like?

Two cases are shown below, which is the turning point of ending or lasting the act of discrimination.

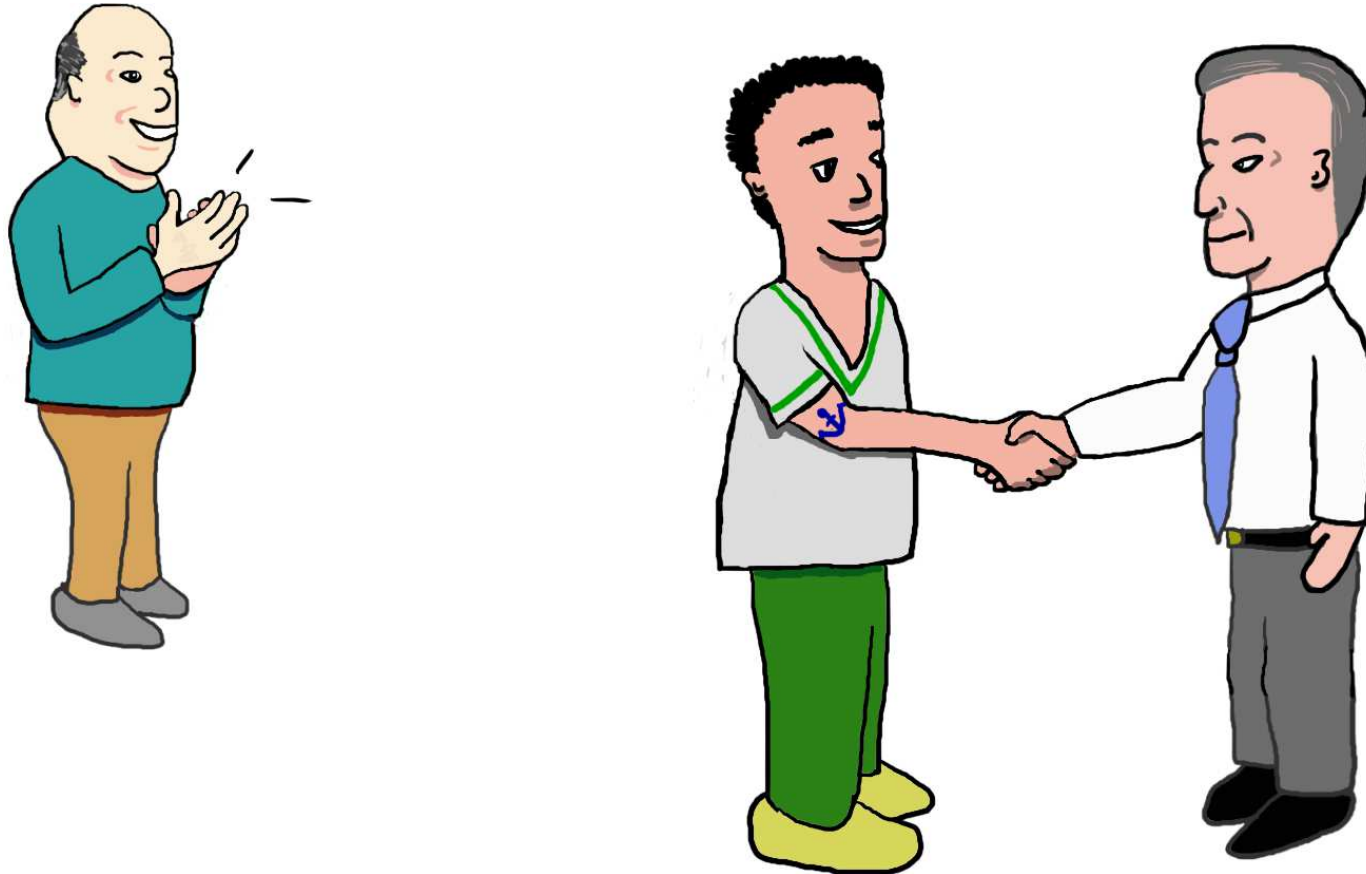

[Case1] Discrimination is caused by the difference of perception

Mr.Seegood provided the following information to Mr.Lookbad, as he thought that Mr.Lookbad had misunderstood Mr.Tattoo.

Mr.Lookbad who had changed his perception towards Mr.Tattoo has started treating him as a decent man.

It is natural to treat a decent man as a decent man.

The next case is related to the illusion of good and evil.

[Case2] Discrimination is caused by the evil

Discriminating someone is bad. You should never tolerate discrimination. Mr. Seegood strongly argued.

Mr. Seegood

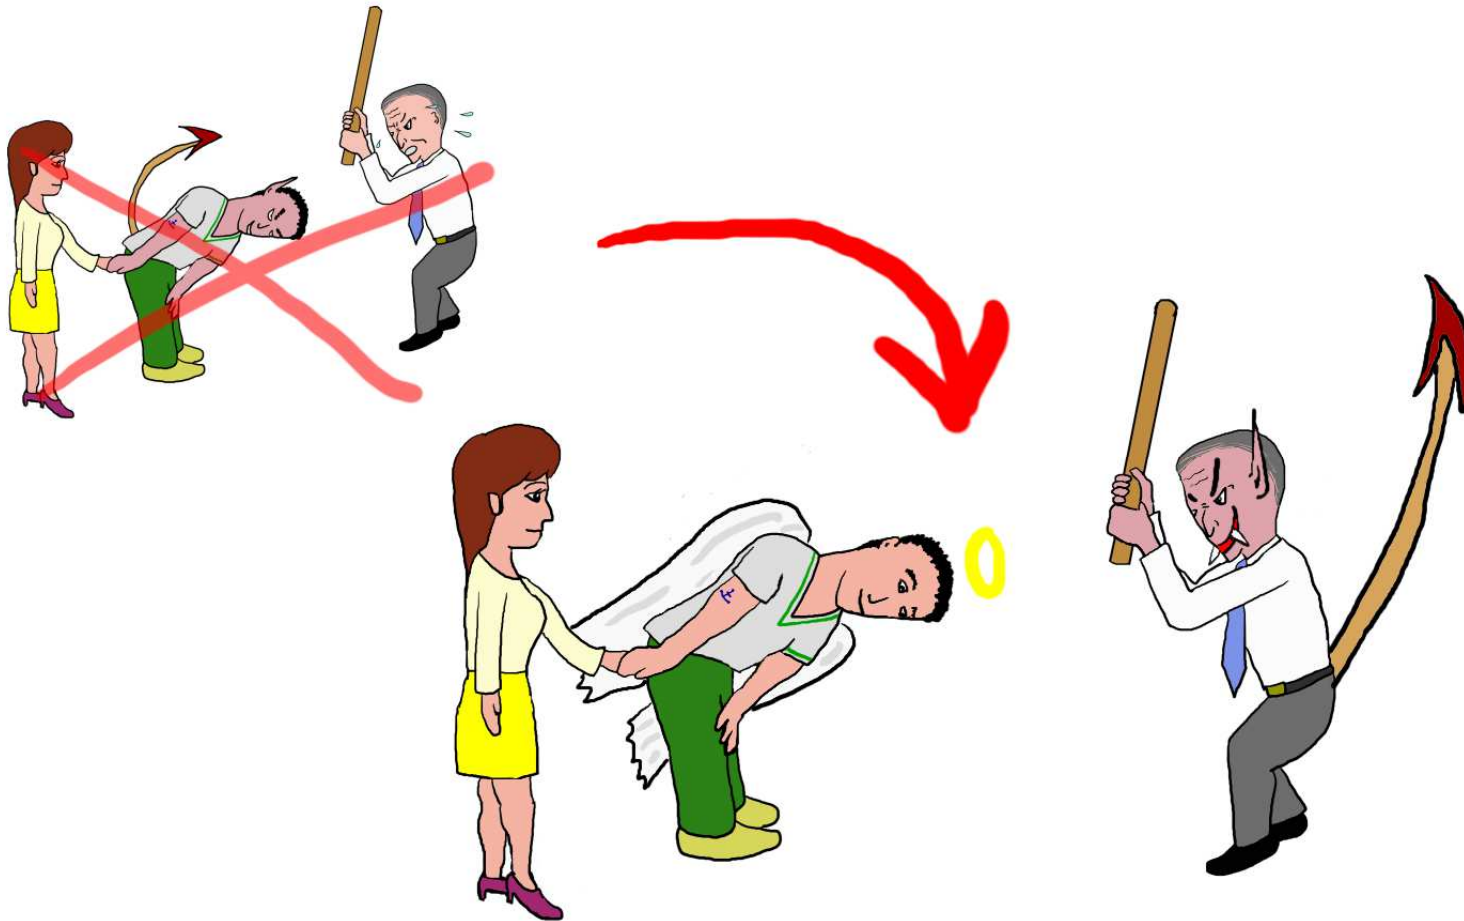

You are wrong! I am talking about your behaviour towards Mr. Tattoo!
Look at this article! Mr. Tattoo was praised for saving someone's life!

Mr. Lookbad

W-What? Mr. Tattoo saved someone's life?

If Mr. Tattoo was not a bad person to begin with, consequently it means that Mr. Lookbad committed the act of discrimination. Whoever commits the act of discrimination is evil. This process can be illustrated as below.

What? Are you saying that I am evil!?

This article must be a lie!

אולי זה לא
