

Sweet Kidnapper

Jun Togo

Children are about to go to school in the morning.

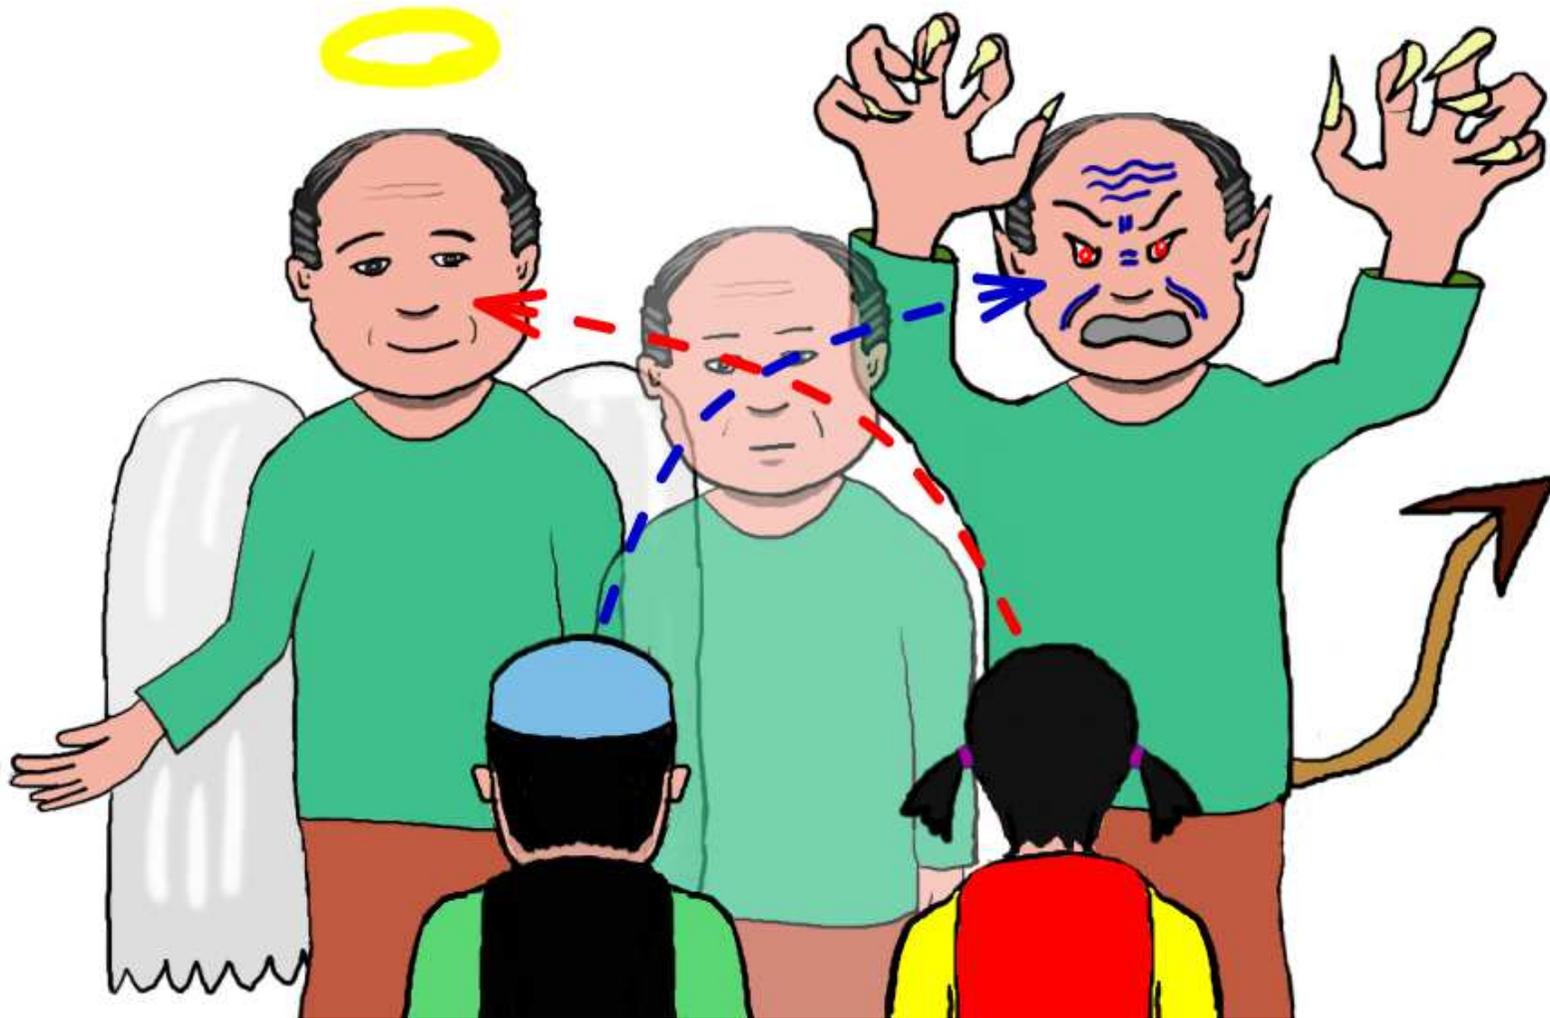

After saying good-by to their mother, the children are heading to their school

A man started talking to them

The boy thought that the man could be a kidnapper. The girl thought that the man would be so sweet to give her some pocket money.

Each child's recognition on the man has become totally different.

In this way, it is not unusual that people's recognition on an identical person becomes totally different respectively.
