Ally of Justice

Jun Togo
A policeman is chasing someone.

Hey, you! Wait!

This is to arrest a bad man. We policemen are the allies of justice!

Excuse me, why are you chasing him?
A mother is giving her son a spank.

Bad boy!

I am just teaching a child discipline. I am doing the right thing as a mother.

Excuse me, why are you spanking him?
School children are shouting at a boy.

You, bastard!

Hey, why are you yelling at him?

It is because he does not try to get along with others. Our teacher told us that it is important to get along with others. What we are doing is right.
A believer of a certain religion is setting a poisonous gas in a train.

Why are you setting up a poisonous gas?

My spiritual leader said, 'If you leave them alive, they will accumulate more sins.' What I am doing is the right thing to do.
An airplane is dropping bombs and killing people.

Why are you dropping bombs?

Terrorists are hiding there. This is a fight for justice.
Someone is executed.

The court made the decision. It is the justice of the constitutional state. To be honest with you, we do not want to be involved in this kind of things.

Excuse me, why are you killing this man?
An assemblyman who took a question in the Diet repeats criticism on the government.

Dissolve the government now!

Why are you accusing them?

For justice, of course! That goes without saying!
Oh, I see.
It seems that anyone who attacks others does so in the belief that what he/she does is right.

Now I have a question for you. Please imagine something that you think is right. It can be anything.
Whom are you attacking?
